FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

YEAR A

Matthew 4:1-11

Sunday 22nd February 2026

A few thoughts for simple reflection on this first Sunday of Lent

The Spirit drove Jesus into the wilderness and why?

If you go therefore to the desert to be rid of all the dreadful people and all the awful problems in your life, you will be wasting your time. You should go to the desert to see more and see better. One goes to the desert especially to take a closer look at the things and people one would rather not see, to face situations one would rather avoid, to answer questions one would rather forget. – From ‘Mediations on the Sand’ by Alessandro Pronzato’

In this desert of solitary prayer, Jesus is tempted. If we look more closely at these temptations, we see that the devil seized on the moment between what Jesus knew about himself and what he was experiencing. Jesus knew he was the Son of God. But if you are, says the devil, you should not be hungry, you should not be powerless, you should not be alone. And what does Jesus do? He places his divine nature to one side and takes his place on the side of the poor, the abandoned, the weak, “worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.” ... therefore Jesus goes into the desert, therefore he fasts; therefore he leaves behind everything else that a person needs even for bare existence, so that for this once not just in the depths of his heart but in the whole range of his being he can do and say what is the first and last duty of humankind – to find God, to seek God, to belong to God to the exclusion of everything else that makes up human life. - Karl Rahner

If some temptation arises in the place where you dwell, do not leave that place in time of temptation. For if you leave it then, no matter where you go, you will find the same temptation waiting for you. – Theophan the Recluse.

Sr. Regina Lewis

Sr. Regina Lewis entered the Poor Clare Community, in Ennis in 1961. She was a native of Co. Clare and enjoyed everything Irish!

An invitation from Australian Poor Clares to make a joint Foundation to Papua New Guinea found Sr. Regina among the small band of four Irish sisters joining four Australian sisters embarking on a new Foundation to Papua New Guinea in 1971. The sisters have been in New Guinea for the last 55 years and the community have expanded to 8 indigenous sisters and now one remaining Australian sister.

Less than two years ago Regina returned to Ireland on sick leave, but still her desire was to return to PNG and to the many people who shared her life, supporting her in her fruitful, missionary and contemplative vocation.

The Lord had other plans for her. She experienced ill health and eventually was confined to a wheelchair. All within a week spent in hospital, she met Her Great Love on Valentine's Day! Wasn't Regina a person of coincidence?

She had a lively and engaging personality and gracefully accepted all that lay ahead of her in her final illness. We know for many days we will talk of her escapades, adventures, and endless stories, of which there are many.

Regina passed away in the early hours of the morning of 14th February 2026. Her Funeral Mass was celebrated on Monday among her family, friends, brother friars, Bishop Fintan Monahan and a large number of clergy.

We know that Regina went calmly and peacefully, "for she had a good escort for her journey – the King of Glory". St. Clare

- C. For we have sinned against you.
- P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
- C. And grant us your salvation.
- P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
- C. Amen.

A reading from the book of Genesis.

Gn 2:7-9; 3:1-7

The Lord God fashioned man of dust from the soil. Then he breathed into his nostrils a breath of life, and thus man became a living being.

The Lord God planted a garden in Eden, which is in the east; and there he put the man he had fashioned. The Lord God caused to spring up from the soil every kind of tree, enticing to look at and good to eat, with the tree of life and the tree of knowledge of good and evil in the middle of the garden.

The serpent was the most subtle of all the wild beasts that the Lord God had made. It asked the woman, "Did God really say you were not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?"

The woman answered the serpent, "We may eat the fruit of the trees in the garden. But of the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden God said, "You must not eat it, nor touch it, under pain of death." Then the serpent said to the woman, "No! you will not die! God knows in fact that on the day you eat it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like Gods, knowing good and evil." The woman saw that the tree was good to eat and pleasing to the eye, and that it was desirable for the knowledge that it could give. So she took some of its fruit and ate it. She gave some also to her husband who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realised that they were naked. So they sewed fig-leaves together to make themselves loincloths.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Have mercy on us, O Lord, for we have sinned.

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness. In your compassion blot out my offence. O wash me more and more from my guilt and cleanse me from my sin. R.

My offences truly I know them;
my sin is always before me.

Against you, you alone have I sinned;
what is evil in your sight I have done. R.

A pure heart create for me, O God,
Put a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
Nor deprive me of your holy spirit. R.

*Give me again the joy of your help;
With a spirit of fervour sustain me.
O Lord, open my lips
And my mouth shall declare your praise. R*

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

Rm 5.12-19

Sin entered the world through one man, and through sin death, and thus death has spread through the whole human race because everyone has sinned. If it is certain that death reigned over everyone as the consequence of one man's fall, it is even more certain that one man, Jesus Christ, will cause everyone to reign in life who receives the free gift that he does not deserve, of being made righteous. Again, as one man's fall brought condemnation on everyone, so the good act of one man brings everyone life and makes them justified. As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by one man's obedience many will be made righteous.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

*Praise to you, O Christ,
king of eternal glory!
Man does not live on bread alone,
But on every word
that comes from the mouth of God.
Praise to you, O Christ,
King of eternal glory!*

A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew.

Mt 4.1-11

Jesus was led by the Spirit out into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, after which he was very hungry, and the tempter came and said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to turn into loaves.' But he replied, 'Scripture says:

*Man does not live on bread alone
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.*

The devil then took him to the holy city and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said, 'throw yourself down; for scripture says:

He will put you in his angels' charge,
and they will support you on their hands
in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

Jesus said to him, 'Scripture also says:
You must not put the Lord your
God to the test.'

Next, taking him to a very high mountain, the devil showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour. 'I will give you all these', he said, 'if you fall at my feet and worship me.' Then Jesus replied, 'Be off, Satan! For scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.'

Then the devil left him, the angels appeared and looked after him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.
