Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

(Year C)

17th July 2016

Listening to God's Word

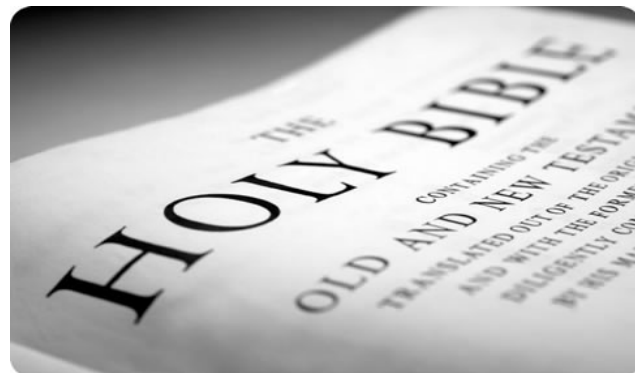

'Jesus came to a village, and a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. She had a sister called Mary, who sat down at the Lord's feet and listened to him speaking.' Luke 10:38-39. Meanwhile, we are told that Martha was busy with all the serving - too busy to listen to what her special guest had to say. The Lord summed up the situation by saying that 'it is Mary who has chosen the better part.' Luke 10:42.

In our celebration of the Eucharist, in the liturgy of the word, Jesus is speaking to the assembled congregation as he spoke to people of old – are we listening? The reader at the ambo is God's mouthpiece.

The Scriptures are God's gift to us. The words of the Scriptures have the power to arouse faith and love in our hearts.

The entire bible speaks of Christ, the Old Testament as well as the New. The entire bible was written, as St. Paul reminds us, "for our instruction." To understand Christ, therefore we must turn also to the Old Testament. The New lies hidden in the Old, the Old comes fully to light in the New.

Ever since the eleventh century the Creed has been said at Sunday Mass. In the Creed we give our assent to the word of God which we have heard in the scriptures. The Creed is also a time to profess our belief in the mysteries of our faith which are at the heart of our Mass and our life.

O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is and the fever of life is over and our work is done.

Then, Lord, in your mercy grant us a safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace at the last.

Reflection for the Year of Mercy

We learn and experience the mercy of God in many ways. Through words, actions, prayers and study, the mercy of God makes its way into life. Twenty-six years ago I heard words on mercy I've never forgotten. Fr Patrick from Limerick spent many years lecturing and ministering in Rome. I attended his lectures as preparation to celebrate the Sacrament of Confession. In the course of these lectures he once said "Remember when you are hearing confessions be generous with God's mercy because it's not your mercy to keep. Mercy belongs to God and there is an abundance for all, so don't think it's yours to give or keep." While in Rome he was appointed Chaplain to His Holiness Pope John Paul II in December 1988. Sadly, in 2003 Fr Patrick passed away. May he rest in the Peace of God's Mercy. He taught me a valuable lesson which I in turn pass on to you in the hope that it will bring you some joy on this day.

Live the Word:

Happiness is a choice not a result.

Nothing will make you happy until you choose to be happy. No person or possession will make you happy unless you decide to be happy.

Happiness will not come to you.

Happiness can only come from you.

Do you or someone you know wish to become a Catholic?

Are you a baptized Catholic but have not yet been Confirmed or received First Holy Communion?

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (R.C.I.A.) may be the place for you!

Every year adults are welcomed into the Catholic Community through this R.C.I.A. parish programme.

The Franciscan community have been part of the history of Ennis since the 13th century. Our church is part of your community. Be a part of history and help us. We are appealing to those who may not have contributed yet to our renovation fund. We haven't reached our target, but we are getting there. All of our benefactors will be written into a special book for future generations to see, and a plaque will also be erected in our church to show our gratitude and appreciation to all who donated on behalf of themselves or a loved one. Any contribution, no matter how small will be very gratefully appreciated and acknowledged.

Justice and Peace

Social Justice Ireland have released the following interesting statistics. Since the onset of the recession the number of people in poverty in Ireland has increased by more than 100,000. Today there are more than 750,000 people living in poverty in Ireland. More than 57 per cent of those in poverty are people who are retired, students, people in caring roles, people who are ill or people with a disability. If Government wishes to address and close this divide, future policy must prioritise those at the bottom of the income distribution. These policies must be designed to address the wide variety of households and adults in poverty. We, as Church have a voice in this. Killaloe Diocese JPIC committee encourages you to write to your local politician and local representatives to ensure they are working hard to alleviate this issue.

In Ireland many chieftains and noble Gaelic families had a patron saint. The following is a list of some of those whose names survive:

O'Toole	Kevin of Glendalough
O'Kinsella	St. Madoc, Ferns
O'Kavanagh	St. Molling
Descendants of O'Moore	St. Fintan
The Decies	St. Declan
Clan of Brian, Aherlow	St. Senna
MacDermott, Muskerry	St. Gobnet
Mac Colley	St. Colman

Most clans and regions in Ireland were associated with a patron saint. Other saints mentioned and remembered are St. Enda, St. Colmcille, St. Ciaran, St. Finian, St. Alva, St. Brigid (Mary of the Gael), St. Patrick, St. Flannan and many more. Let us not forget all the Saints of Ireland. They are commemorated on 6th November.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon

See, I have God for my help.

The Lord sustains my soul.

I will sacrifice to you with willing heart,
and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord

C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord
God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,

you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

A reading from the book of Genesis

Gen 18:1-10

The Lord appeared to Abraham at the Oak of Mamre while he was sitting by the entrance of the tent during the hottest part of the day.
He looked up, and there he saw three men standing near him. As soon as he saw them he ran from the entrance of the tent to meet them, and bowed to the ground. 'My Lord',
he said, 'I beg you, if I find favour with you, kindly do not pass your servant by. A little water shall be brought; you shall wash your feet and lie down under the tree. Let me fetch a little bread and you shall refresh yourselves before going further. That is why you have come in your servant's direction'.
They replied, 'Do as you say'.

Abraham hastened to the tent to find Sarah. 'Hurry' he said 'knead three bushels of flour and make loaves'. Then running to the cattle Abraham took a fine and tender calf and gave it to the servant, who hurried to prepare it. Then taking cream, milk and the calf he had prepared, he laid all before them, and they ate while he remained standing near them under the tree.

'Where is your wife Sarah?' they asked him. 'She is in the tent', he replied.
Then his guest said, 'I shall visit you again next year without fail, and your wife will then have a son.'

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Response: The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

Lord who shall dwell on your holy mountain?
He who walks without fault;
he who acts with justice
and speaks the truth from his heart;
he who does not slander with his tongue.

R.

He who does no wrong to his brother,
who casts no slur on his neighbour,
who holds the godless in disdain,
but honours those who fear the Lord.

R.

He who keeps his pledge, come what may;
who takes no interest on a loan
and accepts no bribes against the innocent.
Such a man will stand firm forever.

R.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Colossians

Col 1:24-28

It makes me happy to suffer for you, as I am suffering now, and in my body to do what I can to make up all that has still to be undergone by Christ for the sake of his body, the Church. I became the servant of the Church when God made me responsible for delivering God's message to you, the message which was a mystery hidden for generations and centuries and has now been revealed to his saints. It was God's purpose to reveal it to them and to show all the rich glory of this mystery to pagans. The mystery is Christ among you, your hope of glory: this is the Christ we proclaim, this is the wisdom in which we thoroughly train everyone and instruct everyone, to make them all perfect in Christ.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

*Open our heart, O Lord,
to accept the words of your Son.*

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Lk 10:38-42

Jesus came to a village, and a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. She had a sister called Mary, who sat down at the Lord's feet and listened to him speaking. Now Martha who was distracted with all the serving said, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister is leaving me to do the serving all by myself? Please tell her to help me.' But the Lord answered:
'Martha, Martha,' he said, 'you worry and fret about so many things, and yet few are needed, indeed only one. It is Mary who has chosen the better part; it is not to be taken from her.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord, the gracious, the merciful,
Has made a memorial of his wonders;
He gives food to those who fear him.
